Christmas Observance In Protestant Churches Announced For Sunday

Religious observance of Christmas begins Sunday, when some Protestant Churches will hold their major services, with special music. The young church members will participate in pageants. Episcopal major observance is on Christmas Eve and Christmas Day.

Catholic Church observance also waits until Christmas Day.

Christmas Sunday will be celebrated at The Carmel Presbyterian Church this Sunday, at the two identical services of 9:30 and 11:00 o'clock, as well as at a Vesper Service at 5:30 o'clock.

The minister, The Reverend Dr. Joseph M. Ewing, will preach at the morning services on the subject: Good News. At the 9:30 service, the soloist, Miss Carolyn Solmonson will sing, Lo, How A Rose E'er Blooming, traditional German melody of the 15th century, and What Child Is This?, 16th century English melody. At the 11:00 o'clock service, the choir, under the direction of Mrs. Joseph Sherry, will sing Carol of The Lonely Shepherd by Caldwell, and Lo, How A Rose E'er Blooming.

The organist, Mr. Fred Lewis, will present as the Prelude Adoration by Borowski; as the Offertory Croon Carol from the German, and for the Postlude Christmas Fantasy by Rebling.

There is a nursery for infants and small children at both morning services.

The third annual Christmas Pageant The Adoration of Kings and Shepherds will be presented at the 5:30 Vesper Service. Mr. Lewis' organ numbers include In Bethlehem's Town by Mueller, A Rose Bursts Forth by Deigendesch, and From Heaven Above to Earth I Come by Bach. Miss Solmonson will sing O Holy Night by Adams. Music by the Adult Choir includes: While Shepherds Watched Their Flocks By Night; Angels We Have Heard On High and We Three Kings. The Junior Choir, also under the direction of Mrs. Sherry, will sing Sleep, My Little Jesus by Geibel, The Angel Song by Vincent and Gesu Bambino by Yon.

The following Church School members are in the Pageant: Mary, Jane Skillman; Joseph, Jerry Stuefloten; The Scripture, Carol Stewart, Chris Shepherd.

The Angels: Barbara Arnn, Kitt Bartram, Gay Beauchamp, Lorelei Bennett, Sue Bennett, Kathy Brown, Mary Brown, Martha Campbell, Sally Campbell, Barbara Cooke, Debbie Cooke, Donna Durrein, Penny King, Phyllis Pilone, Tashia Seeders, Nancy Terry.

The Shepherds: Matt Little, Clinton Macy, Paul Pucci.

The Kings: Carleton Macy, Dick Templeton, Jody Terry.

The Attendants: David Erickson, John Maloney, Gregg McHugh.

The Junior Choir: Nancy Akerstrom, Jack Argust, Marilyn Barnes, Claudia Bartram, Jack Campbell, Linda Carstensen, Lolly Chapman, John Frank, Jim my Frincke, Kathy Johnson, Robert Johnson, Carolyn Layton, Margaret Leidig, Marsha Muncy, Ty Seeders, Laura Shepherd, Jo Ann Sherry, Laurel Sherry, Sharon Smith, Rick Stemple, Twig Stephenson, Mary Wilcox, Tony Ziegweid.

On those evenings the Carmel Youth Center will present its Christmas Capers, the free show it puts on annually to thank the community for its support and co-operation during the year.

In addition to the show, there will be candy and balloons distributed by Santa Claus, pictured above.

Supervisors Put Part Of Down Coast Land Under Interim Zoning Ordinance; Set Hearing For Rest On December 29

An interim ordinance setting two and a half acres as the minimum lot size for the previously unzoned coastal area from Carmel Highlands to the county line was adopted by the County Supervisors in Salinas Monday.

The ordinance, which applies to unzoned land 2500 feet east of Highway 1, and to the coast line west of the highway, carries a time limit of six months.

Still in limbo is the 500 foot strip on either side of the highway, presently zoned to 6,000 square foot lots. The county planning commission will hold a public hearing December 29 on their proposal to rezone this strip to one acre minimum single family dwelling sites.

Specially at issue Monday was one-acre minimum interim zoning proposed by the planning commission November 24 and endorsed by the Area Planning Commission and the Carmel Highlands Association.

Strong objections to the one-acre proposal were registered at the supervisors' hearing by a trio of lawyers representing the Sawyer, Doud and Smith interests which control much of the property between the Highlands and Bixby Creek. Their arguments generally protested that "no emergency exists" to justify an interim ordinance, and expressed fears that one-acre interim zoning would tend to cause a "delay in progress," and that such temporary zoning might "stick."

Meeting the specific arguments of the Sawyer-Doud-Smith legal battery, Supervisor Hudson disagreed that no emergency exists to require interim zoning, and emphasized that any such zoning would not necessarily be final. Noting (Continued on Page Eighteen)

Plaza Gas Pumps Again Confront Planning Board

Carmel Plaza developer Leslie C. Fenton, through his architect, Olof Dahlstrand, showed new plans for an off-street parking garage and gas station to planning commissioners yesterday afternoon. The development is planned for the southern part of the Plaza site.

Mr. Fenton sought from commissioners an interpretation of the municipal code as to whether the gas station was an accessory use to the garage. Unofficially, three planning commissioners thought it was.

On February 11 commissioners recommended that a previous Carmel Plaza parking facility could have gas pumps as an accessory use. The city council overruled this decision on February 17. Yesterday afternoon City Attorney John Morse told planning commissioners that they could consider the new parking garage plans only if they thought the new plans were substantially different from those rejected by the council in February. If commissioners found a substantial difference they were not bound by the February overruling of the council.

Commissioners Herbert Blanks, Fred Keeble and Jessie MacGregor indicated unofficially that they considered the new plans dissimilar to those rejected. Mr. Blanks moved that the application for the parking garage be accepted for consideration and then action by the board of adjustments on January 20.

Thomas Montgomery, attorney for Dale Leidig, Carmel service station operator, objected to this motion on behalf of his client and asked that his objection be placed on record. Mr. Montgomery contended that the new plans did not substantially differ from the previously rejected plans in sufficient degree to disregard the council's overruling.

Lewis Fenton, attorney for Leslie C. Fenton (they are not related) urged that the commission come to a decision on the gas pumps as early as possible. He said that businesses that will occupy the buildings now being built at the Plaza site would suffer hardships if the garage were being constructed after they opened. Construction would disrupt store activities.

Admiral C. W. Fisher, president of the Citizens Committee, Inc. (incorporated two hours before) urged commissioners to come to no hurried decision on the new Plaza parking garage. The matter was of broad community interest, he said, and would have a decided effect on the future of the business area. Admiral Fisher said the situation had changed since the city council rejected the former parking garage to be operated in conjunction with a motel at the Plaza site.

Olof Dahlstrand, architect for Carmel Plaza, described the new parking garage plans to the commission. The off-street parking garage for 157 self-parked cars, 220 attendant-parked, would extend along the Seventh Street boundary of the Plaza with a 97 foot entrance-exit off Mission Street, he said. The service station would be in the southwest corner of the development and contain two islands for four gas (Continued on Page Four)

There was a meeting down coast on December 8 on the future of Monterey County Coast from the Highlands south. To quote Senator Fred Farr: "There were representatives on county, state and national level."

They assembled at the Nathaniel Owings' and had lunch at Nicholas Roosevelt's. De Witt Nelson, state director of natural resources; Robert Bradford, chairman of the state highway commission; Harry Freeman, deputy director of public works in charge of planning; Charles de Turk, head of the state beaches and parks commission; Elton Andrews, state planning officer; State Senators Alan Erhart of San Luis Obispo and Fred Farr of Carmel; Richard Sfas and Robert Luntney, national parks representatives; Supervisor Tom Hudson; County Planning Director Ed De Mars, County Road Commissioner Bruce McClain, Nicholas Roosevelt, Nathaniel Owings, Will Shaw, Harry Dick Ross, and Lawrence Halpern, a land architect from San Francisco.

What other conclusions they reached is not reported, but they are firmly of the opinion that the area must be planned as a unit; that the county planning commission should not accept piecemeal plans such as those submitted by the property owners for the eight miles south of the Highlands.

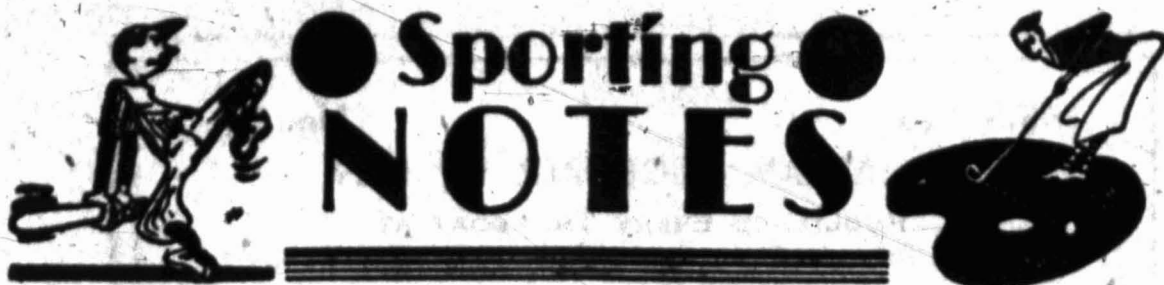

Thirty-three years ago today the Pine Cone urged all Carmelites to gather round the first community Christmas tree at the intersection of Ocean Avenue, Junipero Street and Mountain View Avenue on Christmas Eve to sing carols and receive presents from Santa Claus.

Just in case anyone might not know the carols planned for the event, The Pine Cone poetry column of the December 17, 1926, edition of this paper contained Holy Night, The First Nowell and Good King Wenceslas, printed in their entirety.

Mrs. Phil K. Gordon headed the group that planned Carmel's first tree at the foot of the hill. This week the tree is lighted again as it has been every year since 1926.

A Carmel expatriate writes from London:

"The dank and foggy English winter is a bit rugged in the dank and foggy apartments here but we do have such civilized people in our big old brick house and a gorgeous view of lake and hills and trees and idiotic ducks who forgot to migrate across the Pacific. TRIPLE-HEADER BASKETBALL AT CARMEL FRIDAY NIGHT

Carmel basketball fans have a full course of the casaba sport in store for them at the Carmel High gym this Friday night when the Gonzales Spartans bring three teams to the Padre campus for league action. The junior-varsity crews open fire in a 5:30 tussle which matches the underclass hoopsters who are being groomed for varsity duty in the future. At 7:00 o'clock, the lightweights square off in a regular league game, and the varsity tilt is slated for an 8:30 tip-off.

Gonzales turned in a minor upset last weekend by clipping the favored Pacific Grove quintet in a league game at the Breaker gym. The scrappy Spartans were beaten in the rebound department but used superior speed and a hot shooting streak by center Joe Sargenti to unhinge Coach Backin's classy varsity club. Carmel's varsity jelled into a high-scoring machine at San Lorenzo as it pumped through 76 points in routing the Cougars. The rangy Carmel quintet controlled both backboards and gave the stubby San Lorenzo gang only one shot at the basket while helping themselves to two or three on every offensive surge. This will be the second league game of the season for Coach Dan Yurkovich's charges and a win over the Spartans will lock them up with King City for the top spot as the cagers take time off for the Christmas holidays. Carmel's starting unit for Friday's important league tilt will be Russ Wise and John Wilkin, forwards, Chris Wilkin, center, and a guard duo of Fred Bucher and Mike Draper.

Although winless in three games, Carmel's lightweight squad is gaining momentum with each outing and threatens to hit the win column at most any time. The Little Padres are short on experience this season but have good height and are fairly accurate in the shooting department. Coach Hadley Hicks will start three sophomores, a freshman, and a junior against Gonzales as the Padrecitos make an all-out attempt to halt the Little Spartans. Forrest Cornwall, Jim Miles, and Bob Wells are the front line crew with Frank Bucher and Ted Leidig at the play-making spots.

Carmel's junior-varsity is manned by Bob Little, Scott Forbes, Jim Brown, Mike Dunham, Frank Mayo, Paul Rice, Nick Molitor, David Faulkner, and Alan Marshall. The jayvees have a win over Palma High to their credit so far this season and will be favored to take the measure of the Gonzales reserves.

PADRE CAGERS CLIP SAN LORENZO AND PALMA

With Russ Wise pumping in 58 points in the two games, Carmel High's varsity hoop squad ran roughshod over San Lorenzo Friday night and came back Saturday night to give Palma High of Salinas the same treatment. The Padres clipped San Lorenzo, 76 to 45, and powered over Palma, 64 to 43. Wise burned the nets for 30 points Friday night and drilled in 28 points in the win over Palma.

The win over San Lorenzo got the Padres off on the right foot in league play and establishes them as the team to beat in the B-division of the CCAL. Complete domination of the backboards by Wise, Chris and John Wilkin, and Toby Edson made the going easy for the Padres in both games. All the Carmel lads got into the scoring act at San Lorenzo with Toby Edson getting 9, Chris Wilkin 8, Mike Draper 8, Fred Bucher 7, John Wilkin 4, Doyle Clayton 4, Dave Fuller 3, Al Dahlstrand 2, Scott Forbes 2, and Pat Boyle 1.

Saturday night's practice game at Palma saw the Padres rebounding at their best as the 6-4 Chris Wilkin swept the boards clean at both ends of the court. The lanky junior center picked off 18 rebounds and what he didn't come down with was gathered in by Toby Edson, Russ Wise, and John Wilkin. Wise enjoyed another hot shooting streak at Palma, hitting for 11 field goals and 6 free throws. Edson had 11 points, Chris Wilkin 6, Mike Draper 6, Dave Fuller 4, John Wilkin 3, Pat Boyle 2, Doyle Clayton 2, Fred Bucher 2, Al Dahlstrand 2, and Dave Hansen 2.

Carmel's lightweight team was no match for the Cougar Babes, dropping the nod, 39 to 31, in a game which was mostly a parade to the free-throw line. The Little Padres hit for only 6 field goals but cashed in on 19 points via the free-throw route. The Santa Cruz mountain boys meshed 14 field goals and made good on 11 charity tosses. Jim Miles led the Carmel point-getters with 14 points, Pete dePetra hit for 8, Forrest Cornwall 5, Frank Bucher 2, Ted Leidig 1.

Hallelujah Chorus by Handel.

For Us a Child Is Born, a Christmas cantata by J. S. Bach, will be presented by the Chapel Singers as a part of the services on Sunday morning at 9:30 and 11:00 o'clock at the Church of the Wayfarer. John W. Farr will conduct the group and also sing the baritone solo: So Appears Thy Natal Day. Other soloists will be Mrs. Nello Torri, singing: Immanuel! O Give to Me and: Lord, I Sing Thy Name and Donald G. Roberts, tenor, who will sing: Lord, My Thanks to Thee.

Connell K. Carruth will be the organist and her selections will include: Karg-Elert's From the Depths of My Heart I Adore Thee; A Son Is Born by Krekel; Couperin's Noel, The Cradle Song from the Christmas Oratorio by J. S. Bach, and Praise Ye the Lord of Hosts from the Christmas Oratorio by Saint Saens.

Dr. K. Fillmore Gray will conduct the services.

At 5:00 o'clock on Sunday evening the Church School Family Christmas Service will be held in the chapel. Mr. Farr will direct the Children's Choir which will sing O Come, All Ye Faithful as a processional and also two carols. The students and their parents will take part in the service which will include carols and the Christmas story in prose and poetry as presented by Dr. Gray.

On Christmas Eve there will be a Communion Service at the Church of the Wayfarer at 4:00 o'clock conducted by Dr. K. Fillmore Gray. John W. Farr will be the baritone soloist with Connell K. Carruth at the organ. Other ministers taking part in the service, will be: Dr. Fred L. Farley, the Rev. Victor H. Davis, Dr. E. Leigh Mudge, and the Rev. Charles H. Burrill.

At 11:00 o'clock the Christmas Eve Midnight Service will be held, as has been the custom for many years. The Chapel Singers will be heard, under Mr. Farr's direction and he will also sing a solo, with Mrs. Carruth at the organ. Dr. Gray will conduct the services in which the congregation, seated in the candlelight, will sing the familiar carols and hear the Christmas story in scripture, poetry, and contemporary prose.

At All Saints' Episcopal Church on Sunday morning Holy Baptisms will be held at the 9:15 o'clock service. The Holy Communion will be administered at the 8:00 o'clock service. At 11:00 o'clock on Sunday morning the All Saints' service will include Litany, Morning Prayer and Sermon.

A special children's Christmas Eve service of Choral Evensong and Blessing of the Creche will take place at All Saints' Church at 4:00 o'clock in the afternoon on Thursday. The Children's Choirs, under the direction of Mr. and Mrs. Donnelly Fenn, will sing the service. The figures of the Nativity story will be placed in the creche by members of the Church school classes. After the figures are in place, the Christmas Gospel will be read and carols sung. Following the service a Christmas Party will be held in the Parish Hall.

The Midnight Christmas Eve service at All Saints' will begin at 11:00 o'clock with preludial carols sung by the choir. Included in their music will be a carol written by Miss Mary Lindsay-Oliver of Carmel. Grove Becker will sing international folk carols during the administration of the Holy Communion. Frank Putnam will read the Epistle. He is a former vestryman and warden of the parish.

On Christmas Day the Children's Choirs will sing the Festival Holy Communion Service at 10:00 o'clock in the morning. At 8:00 o'clock in the morning of Christmas Day, the Right Reverend Winfred H. Ziegler, retired Bishop of Wyoming, now a Carmel Highlands resident, will officiate at the Holy Communion celebration.

FROM A LIBRARIAN'S NOTEBOOK

By Ruth Galvin Thornburg

Just in case you are planning to give books for Christmas, we have the list of suggested books for Christmas giving which was published in the San Francisco Chronicle a couple of weeks ago. This list is at the loan desk and you may consult it anytime. Books make lovely Christmas gifts. A book is one of the few things you can't eat up or wear out. Unless you throw it away, it will last you and comfort you for years. Give books, any books but ours, that is.

Because we are so perilously close to the holidays, we are going to stress novels this week. Lighter stuff, which you are more apt to want to read between your shopping trips and other expensive preparations for Christmas. Short stories are good for wedding in between other things. This time we have the new collection by Bess Streeter Aldrich. There are two novels and a group of short stories. Several years ago, while doing public relations for a mid-west library, this librarian read A Lantern in Her Hand over a radio station, and the reaction of the listeners was as heartwarming as the book itself. This is one of the novels in the Aldrich Treasury, the other one is Miss Bishop. All of you who object to modern fiction should reread these two novels. You will enjoy them.

Paul Gallico has a new one about a haunted house and the various ghosts and whimsical poltergeists to be found there. The hero's name is Alexander Hero, and he truly plays a hero's role in his attempts to de-ghost these hair-raising premises. The title is Too Many Ghosts.

The new Nancy Hale novel is called Dear Beast. It is a gentle story of Starkeyville, Virginia, where life went on as if the Civil War had never been. That is, it did so until some unknown person wrote a novel called The Rose That Died, and the result of that was that Life magazine sent a reporter down to take pictures and write an article about Starkeyville. That was an invasion of privacy. The whole thing is the plot for Dear Beast by Nancy Hale. If you enjoy gentle novels, this one is for you.

Another gentle story is Half Angel by Barbara Jefferis. It is the story of a cat and a small boy, and the families of both of them. Well written.

Gather No Moss by Sean O'Hanlon has an endorsement on the jacket by P. G. Wodehouse. He says it is exactly the type of story he likes to read. That just about sums up the whole thing.

There are several new mysteries, too. Something for everyone.

Plaza Gas Pumps Up Again Before Planning Board

pumps, car washing facilities, hoists for lubrication, a sales office, bathroom, and waiting area.

Cars would enter off Mission on to a driveway ramp paralleling Mission Street and following the natural slope of the site to emerge behind the Ocean Avenue stores, bank and restaurant buildings at ground level, also the level of the upper parking deck. The ramp would continue down into the lower underground parking garage and continue round this area to exit on Mission Street at the entrance.

The ramp would be hidden by a hedge, the upper deck would have planting areas, but none would be large enough for trees. The upper deck would be six or seven feet below the Junipero Street Plaza boundary. Along this boundary future building might be undertaken.
However, Mr. Fenton guaranteed that off-street parking for 60 cars would be provided in this eventuality, Mr. Dahlstrand stated.

The garage, below ground level, would be built of reinforced concrete with all parts visible from the street-stuccoed, and similar in appearance to the Plaza stores on Ocean Avenue. The service station would be natural stone and at grade level. Two truck loading zones would be placed behind the Ocean Avenue stores accessible from a driveway on Mission Street.
There would be a stairway from the lower garage floor to the terrace behind the Ocean Avenue shops, etc. A four foot strip would be reserved for planting along the Junipero and Mission Street Plaza boundaries. Concrete blocks in a pierced decorative design would be used to shield the gas station. Mr.
Dahlstrand concluded.

LENK GAVE TOWN HOUSE RECITAL ON DECEMBER 9

John Lenk, Carmel composer, gave a recital of his work at the Carmel Foundation Town House on December 9.

Mr. Lenk is a native of Czechoslovakia, and his music is definitely Slavic, with a characteristic seriousness, often suggesting tragedy, that sometimes breaks into measures of dancing joy. Most of his works seem to be in minor key.
Two of them, written since he came to Carmel, suggest an expatriate's longing for a departed Bohemia.

Those who attended the recital were both pleased and emotionally stirred by the music.

Trustees Soothe Kindergarten, Rural Parents

School trustees said yes to one group of parents, no to another, at the regular board of education meeting Monday night in Carmel High School Library.

Kindergarteners' parents have a new form to fill out. Questions which they objected to answering, such as, "Does your child wet the bed?" have been eliminated.

But parents who live over the hills and far away will still have to transport their children, if they don't want them to walk, to the main bus routes in the valleys. About sixty parents, most of them in Carmel Valley, have asked the board to send the bus onto the side roads. Trustees pointed out that the busses have to stay on the main routes because any extension of mileage costs money and expense of bussing already amounts to $59,054 per year. Many of the feeder roads to Carmel Valley Road and to Highway 1 in the Highlands are mountainous and Walt Disney's film classic Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs will be playing at the Golden Bough Cinema Saturday, December 19 through Thursday, December 24 as a Christmas Holiday attraction that the entire family can enjoy. There will be continuous performances starting at 2:30 o'clock every day.

curvy. The big diesels can't negotiate the curves, and some of the grades are too steep, though the busses are equipped with especially heavy brakes.

"We'd have to send station wagons after some of the children," said Dr. Grant Fletcher. "It would be providing taxi service."

"Parents should be informed that the district is under no legal obligation to furnish transportation at all," Dr. Richard Snyder observed.

A monograph will be sent out to parents to explain the board policy on transportation.

The old form for Kindergarteners' parents contained 39 questions some of which: "Does your child whine? What time does he go to bed? Do any relatives live with the family? Is there parent-child friction?" aroused parental objections. The new form has only six questions:

"If your child has special interests, please indicate what they are."

"Does your child have any fears or obsessions? Please describe the nature and, if you can, the origin."

"If your child has any allergies or aversions, please list."

"What type of discipline seems most effective?"

"If your child has any physical handicaps, please indicate what they are. Does he tire easily?"

"Is there any other information which might be of help to the teachers in understanding the child's abilities and needs?"

READINGS FOR ROLES IN COWARD PLAY TONIGHT

The Golden Bough Circle Theatre announces readings for roles in Noel Coward's comedy, Nude with Violin, this evening, at 8:00 o'clock.

Edward Kuster, veteran of more than 150 plays in the last four decades, is directing. The Circle management says that it is especially desirous of establishing contacts with newcomers to the Peninsula. Several types of roles are involved, with emphasis on the serio-comic part of a middle-aged international art dealer, also of a Cockney ex-member of a musical comedy chorus.

The play is scheduled for its opening performance on January 29. General rehearsals will commence immediately after the Christmas holidays.

Music On The Peninsula Take A Tip From Santa and get

By Mary Lindsay-Oliver

As Christmas approaches there is always the thought of special music, and performances of The Messiah. This year it was given in Pacific Grove and I regretted being unable to attend the oratorio which, having drilled and conducted it in the Middle West I know so well! But at All Saints' last Sunday an interesting and unusual Cantata by Dietrich Buxtehude was performed by the Choir and orchestral players conducted by Robert Forbes at the organ.

Since Church music mostly predominated until and into the Reformation, Buxtehude (1637 to 1707) was renowned as organist and composer at St. Mark's Lubeck in Germany. Young J. S. Bach walked 200 miles to hear him and stayed four months studying Buxtehude's chorales which became the model for Bach's many church cantatas. Additional instruments played by fine musicians had been the effort of St. Mark's predecessor, Tunder, whose daughter Buxtehude was obliged to marry in order to get the job! Solos of the Cantata were well delivered Sunday by soprano Shirley Hubbard, contralto Karen Steinke, and baritone Donnelly Fenn; and while the chorus would have gained with more rehearsals, it was effective under Forbes' clever direction while playing the organ. The Reverend H. M. M. Nicholas, David Hagemeyer, violinists, and Mary Dobel, cello, supplied the strings, Nicholas giving two solos—a Preludium by Vivaldi and a piece by Birchenstock, a German violinist and composer of Darmstadt. Back of the pulpit, in a corner, a solo violin is somewhat smothered by the organ, so we hope next time the position may be taken forward, since the choir is entirely on the opposite side of the Chancel. It would make a difference merely to come out from under the low roof over the organ. The melodious and devotional form of the Abend-musiken, written for performance in Advent, projected a service of worship which was inspiring. The present interest everywhere in older musical compositions should broaden the scope and understanding of modern composers who sometimes appear to forget both form and fundamentals of harmony, which, after all, are the roots of musical language.

Garnett W. Brand

Garnett W. Brand died on Saturday in a local hospital after a long illness. He was the manager of the Biltmore Hotel in Los Angeles and came to live in Carmel in September. His home was at Carpenter Street and Ocean Ave.

Mr. Brand was born in Urbana, Ohio, on July 30, 1891. He was a World War I veteran; a member of Boniface International, an association of hotel executives; and the Hotel Greeters Club.

Survivors are his wife, Frances Rannie Brand of Carmel; his mother, Mrs. Lillian Brand, a sister, Mrs. Wendell Cole, and two nephews, Thomas and Richard Cole, all of Los Angeles.

Private funeral services were held on Monday morning in the Little Chapel-by-the-Sea with the Reverend David Hill, rector of All Saints' Episcopal Church, officiating.

Friends wishing to honor the memory of Mr. Brand are asked to do so in the form of donations to the American Cancer Research Society, Box 1028, Monterey.

Loraine Schull

Mrs. Loraine Edson Schull, wife of Brigadier General Herman W. Schull (USA ret.), died Thursday morning in a local rest home after a long illness.

Mrs. Schull was born in Washington, D. C., on November 4, 1877. Her parents were Mr. and Mrs. James R. Edson. She graduated from Sillwell's Friends School in Washington, D. C., in 1895 and received a bachelor's degree from Vassar College in 1899. Her marriage to the then Second Lieutenant Schull, took place in Washington, D. C., on January 26, 1901.

After General Schull retired from active Army duty, he and Mrs. Schull built a home at Carmelo Street and Ninth Avenue which has been their home since 1940.

In addition to her husband, Mrs. Schull is survived by two sons, Colonel Herman W. Schull, Jr., (USA ret.) of Jupiter, Florida, and Colonel Edson Schull (USA) of Washington, D. C.; three sisters, Mrs. H. B. Gantt of Carmel, Mrs. H. H. Armstrong of Hartford, Connecticut, and Mrs. D. C. Duffield of West Hartford, Connecticut; five grandchildren; and two cousins living in Carmel, Miss Dolores Crawford and Mrs. Jane Edson Parker.

Funeral services were held on Saturday morning at 11:00 o'clock in the Little Chapel-by-the-Sea with the Reverend David Hill, rector of All Saints' Episcopal Church officiating. Inurnment was in the Presidio National Cemetery in San Francisco.

Friends wishing to make contributions in the memory of Mrs. Schull may do so in the form of donations to the charity of their choice.

CRAFT STUDIOS AWARD

Sarah McCloud Sunday Bride

Arrangements of white chrysanthemums decorated the altar and central aisle pews of All Saints' Episcopal Church on Sunday for the wedding of Sarah Bates McCloud of Carmel and Winfred Eugene Wedge, son of Mrs. Adeline Wedge of Los Gatos and Ernest Wedge of Modesto. The Reverend David Hill performed the marriage ceremony at 2:00 o'clock. John Farr sang The Marriage Hymn while the guests were assembling and The Lord's Prayer during the ceremony. The bride and groom had memorized their vows and took communion together during the service.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, Walter Edwin McCloud. Her princess-style white duchess satin gown had lace appliqued down the front and around the scoop neckline of the fitted bodice. The full skirt extended in back into a sweep train. A Juliet cap held her fingertip tulle veil in place and she carried a spray bouquet of white butterfly orchids and baby rosebuds.

Mrs. Richard Sippel of Carmel (Patricia Ricketts) was matron of honor. Maid of honor was the bride's sister, Susan McCloud, and the bridesmaids were Mrs. James Lauer of San Diego and Mrs. Wesley Wedge of Sunnyvale, sister-in-law of the groom. They were dressed alike in sapphire blue satin, faille princess gowns with Sabrina necklines. Their small hats and shoes matched their dresses and they carried crescent arrangements of white carnations.

Wesley Wedge, twin brother of the groom, was best man. Ushers were another brother of the groom, Howard Wedge of Modesto, and three of the groom's Stanford Delta Tau Delta fraternity brothers, Fred Bacher, Henry Baumgartner and George Reppas.

Mrs. McCloud attended her daughter's marriage in a royal blue peau de soie dress with a softly pleated skirt, V-neckline and three-quarter length sleeves. Her velvet hat, shoes and accessories matched the dress to which she pinned a white orchid corsage.

Mrs. Wedge, mother of the groom, was attired in a rose beige lace dress with a flaring skirt, a matching feather hat and an orchid corsage.

The reception following the marriage was at La Playa Hotel. A pink silk cloth with an overcloth of white tulle with a pink border covered the table on which stood the tiered wedding cake with silver candelabra at each side. Gina Millington circulated the guest book.

When the bridal couple left for a honeymoon at St. Malo in Southern California, the bride was wearing a navy blue wool dress with matching shoes and accessories.

They will live in Firebaugh where the groom is studying ranch management on a 10,000 acre ranch. He attended Modesto schools before entering Stanford University where he was captain of the football team in 1954, the year before he graduated. He served with the U. S. Marines as a second lieutenant in Japan then returned to Stanford University as a student in the school of business administration from which he graduated with a master's degree in June.

His bride attended Sunset School, Santa Catalina School for Girls and Carmel High School before entering Stanford where she obtained her bachelor's degree in June.

Corner Club Christmas Party

The annual Christmas party of the Corner Club was held on Friday evening in the First Baptist Church, Monterey. Sixty members and guests were welcomed by soft background Christmas carol music when they entered the social hall where poinsettias, sparkling Christmas trees, redwood boughs and candle arrangements created a festive atmosphere. A colorful smorgasbord laden with turkey, ham, a variety of salads, appetizers, meats, cheeses and desserts was a feature of the gathering.

During the evening musical entertainment was given by Mrs. Donna Thompson, Mrs. Janet Hazdovac, Miss Dianne Beall, The Hazelrigg Sisters Trio, and Mr. and Mrs. Don Allen. Pastor Sweeting presented the Christmas message which closed the program. Gifts from secret pals were distributed from under the Christmas tree.

The smorgasbord was arranged by the executive committee under the direction of Mrs. Mercer Beall, president, assisted by Mrs. Martha Echols, Mrs. Betty Holland, Mrs. Floyd Kimball, Mrs. George B. Turner and Mrs. James Myers.

WHAT'S DOING

D. D. Muir, your Telephone Manager in Carmel

Imagine circling the earth for 2000 years! I see where scientists say Vanguard I may last that long. But did you know two things circling with the satellite came from scientific research for your phone? They're transistors and solar batteries, both invented at Bell Telephone Laboratories, our research center. They team up to help Vanguard's radio send messages back to earth. The transistors act as amplifiers, and solar battery cells supply power from sunlight. Here on earth, solar batteries are still experimental as far as telephones go. But transistors help speed your out-of-town calls by automatically helping to pick the right voice path. So you see, the same telephone progress that helps us improve your service is also helping science explore outer space.

Here's an idea for a practical Christmas present that will really please someone in your family: an extension telephone. You can get a desk set like this one or a wall phone in many attractive colors. Could be just the thing for Mom's kitchen, or Dad's workshop. You can find out all about extension phones at our business office.

Carmel O.E.S. Installation

The sparkle and glitter of the Christmas season inspired the decorations for the recent tenth installation of officers of Carmel Chapter No. 581, Order of the Eastern Star. A large group of members and friends were present in the Carmel Masonic temple to congratulate the new officers. The 1960 colors of light and dark turquoise blue and silver were effectively carried out in the Chapter room by a beautiful lighted bouquet of silver and blue ornaments and by a blue heart outlined on a silver scroll. Toy white lambs were arranged about the room.

The new Worthy Matron, Mrs. Edward Zak, wore a turquoise satin formal gown and carried a white net bowknot with an orchid center. Mrs. Zak and Norman Fontes, the new Worthy Patron, were escorted into the Chapter by the Marshals, Mrs. Dorothy Ashley and Mrs. John Westover, gowned alike in dark turquoise formals and carrying silver bowknot batons. The other 1960 officers followed to form a large heart for their Worthy Matron and Worthy Patron. They were Mrs. Norman Fontes, Associate Matron; Norman Winslow, Associate Patron; Mrs. Norman Winslow, Secretary; William Simmons, Treasurer; Mrs. Roy Lewis, Conductress; Mrs. Edward Durell, Associate Conductress; Mrs. Kenneth Roberts, Marshal; Mrs. William Simmons, Chaplain; Mrs. Richard Ellis, Organist; Mrs. Paul Tekawa, Adah; Mrs. Paul Hazdovac, Ruth; Mrs. Alfred Kappadahl, Esther; Mrs. Stirling Purrington, Martha; Mrs. John Flatley, Electa; Richard Ellis, Warder; George Bloomer, Sentinel; Paul Tekawa, Flagbearer; and Gordon Brown, Prompter.

The Installing Officers were, Mrs. Kenneth Roberts, retiring Worthy Matron; William Giles, retiring Worthy Patron; Mrs. Hazel Marsh Piper, Past Grand Matron; Mrs. Edward Neroda; Mrs. Robert Little; George Bloomer.

Mrs. Eugene Scheffer was Hostess, Egon C. Durr was Host. Tekla Broz, a niece of Mrs. Zak, was Bible Bearer and William Bjornvold presented the Flag. James Farlinger was Installing Organist and Mrs. James Farlinger sang several selections throughout the evening.

The downstairs entrance hall was gay with a silvered styrofoam Christmas tree, trimmed with bluebirds and forget-me-nots. In the banquet room the lace covered buffet table was centered by a blue and silver net tree on a revolving musical stand and flanked by beautiful silver candelabra with blue candles. The officers' table was decorated with standing silver hearts on which were letters of blue ornaments, spelling, Sincerity-Service, the Watchwords for the year.

Mrs. Robert Little and Mrs. Dorothy Ashley were co-chairmen for the installation, with their committee, Mrs. David Askew, Mrs. Del Jones, Mrs. William Bjornvold, Mrs. Egon Durr, Mrs. Freda Mayo, Mrs. Jack Sullivan, Mrs. Andrew Del Monte, Mrs. George Bloomer, Mrs. Eugene Scheffer and Mrs. Loren Wilder.

Triple Purpose Party

Mr. and Mrs. Roland Scheffler invited 200 friends to their home on Sunday afternoon for a party with three purposes.

The first was to say farewell to Mrs. Audrey Bassett, district field representative for the American Red Cross, who is leaving Carmel for Washington, D. C., where she will work on a special project at national Red Cross headquarters.

Second purpose of the party was to celebrate the host's birthday. The third arose when Skipper Lloyd told the host and hostess he had just received word that he had passed the California bar examination and they immediately included him among the guests of honor.

During the evening Mr. and Mrs. Scheffler were assisted by Mrs. Anita Wiggins and Mrs. Margaret Young who presided at the two punch tables.

Anne Putnam Engaged

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Putnam have announced the engagement of their daughter, Anne Pattee Putnam, to Thomas Conklin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Conklin of Shelton, Connecticut.

The news was told on Saturday, Anne's eighteenth birthday, to relatives and a group of friends of the young couple who gathered at the Putnam's home before the Monterey Peninsula College Winter Ball at Asilomar.

Both Anne and her fiancé are freshmen at MPC. Anne graduated from Carmel High School in June and prior to that was a Sunset School student. Tom served in the Army at Fort Ord before entering MPC where he is studying to become an electrical engineer. He will continue his college course at the University of California after he and Anne are married following their graduation from MPC in 1961.

Anne's grandparents are Mrs. Frank Putnam, Sr. of Carmel and Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Tubbs of Monmouth, Illinois. She has a younger sister, Jane, and an older brother, Reed.

William Edward Lyon Born

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Lyon's first child, William Edward, was born at the Peninsula Community Hospital on December 8. His birth weight was seven pounds, five ounces.

William Edward's grandparents are former Mayor Horace Lyon and Mrs. Lyon and Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Danelz of Hatton Fields. Both his parents are graduates of Carmel High School. His father joined the high school faculty in September as Russian, English and social studies instructor.

Cousins of William Edward Lyon are Craig and Steven Danelz, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Gregory Danelz of Boulder, Colorado. He is the first grandchild of Mr. and Mrs. Lyon.

In Navy Recruit Training

Larry Dufur, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Dufur, is in San Diego taking recruit training at the Naval Training Center. A Carmel High School graduate he recently enlisted in the Navy and is expected home on a visit when this phase of his service is completed.

Edgar Bissantz' Geneva Report

Edgar Bissantz, who is in Europe for a year with Mrs. Bissantz and her daughter, Joan Willcombe, recently visited the International Red Cross headquarters in Geneva and met several of the heads of the organization. He took photographs and color transparencies to illustrate talks on world-wide Red Cross work when he returns to Carmel.

Mr. Bissantz was impressed by the Red Cross files in Geneva which contain the names of 40 million prisoners-of-war, collected during both World Wars and the Korean conflict. Each record can be located within minutes, he says, and he offers to look up any record for any Carmel person who desires information on a war prisoner.

Last year Mr. Bissantz was vice chairman of the Carmel Red Cross chapter.

AMC Have Christmas Party

Among the first big Christmas parties of 1959 was the Annual Christmas Dinner Dance Saturday at Highlands Inn given by the Associated Mechanical Contractors of Monterey County and sponsored by the newly formed Ladies Auxiliary.

Over a hundred plumbing, electrical and sheet metal contractors of the County and their wives and guests attended.

Association president Robert Gholson, Seaside, presided, assisted by Vice-President Robert Lewis, Salinas; and Secretary-Treasurer Kenneth Jones, Seaside.

Co-Chairmen of the arrangement committee were Mrs. Lois Jones, Carmel, and Mrs. Lillian Brooks of Pacific Grove. Decorations committee chairman was Mrs. Barney Laiolo, Carmel.

Officers of the new Ladies Auxiliary include Mrs. Brooks, President, Mrs. Jones, Vice-President, Mrs. Val Roberti, Castroville, Secretary, and Mrs. Emily Hudelson, of Carmel, Treasurer.

CHRISTMAS FILM FARE

Sir Lawrence Olivier will play in Shakespeare's King Richard III, the opening selection of a trilogy of classic motion pictures offered as pre-holiday fare at the Steinbeck Theatre on Cannery Row in Monterey. Appearing with Sir Lawrence are a group of distinguished British actors, Sir Ralph Richardson, Sir Cedric Hardwicke, John Gielgud and Claire Bloom.

The second film in Shakespeare's Henry V, (Dec. 19, 20, 21) said to be the finest motion picture of a Shakespearian play ever filmed. Henry V will be presented three days only following the three day run of Richard III.

Following Henry V is Gilbert and Sullivan (Dec. 22-23) to round out the trilogy. Starring Robert Morley and Maurice Evans this film is the story of the lives of the two great composers and features all of their music. The theatre will be closed Christmas Eve.

Clio Heller Wed on Saturday

White flowers decorated Highlands Inn Chapel on Saturday morning when Clio C. Heller was married to Al Werner Leaman at 11:30 o'clock. Dr. K. Fillmore Gray officiated at the wedding ceremony which was witnessed by members of the bride's and groom's families and close friends.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother-in-law, William S. Kelly of Los Angeles. She wore a beige silk brocade suit with a matching mink-trimmed veiled headdress, a pink crystal many-stranded choker and bracelet, beige shoes and gloves, and carried a white orchid surrounded with sprays of small flowers.

Matron of honor was her sister Claire (Mrs. William S. Kelly) who wore a black silk dress, hat and accessories and a pink rosebud corsage.

The groom's uncle, N. Franklin of Oakland, was best man.

Mrs. Cecilia C. Heller of Carmel, the bride's mother, attended the marriage in a navy blue lace taffeta gown worn with a blue and green flowered hat and green gloves.

The groom's mother, Mrs. C. Leaman of San Jose, wore a turquoise blue silk suit, matching velvet hat and accessories.

A luncheon at Highlands Inn followed the ceremony. Pink and white carnations were used to decorate the table and a circle of pink carnations surrounded the tiered wedding cake. Later in the afternoon a reception was held at the home of the bride's mother in Carmel. Pottery Christmas bells were suspended from the light above the dining table. Similar bells, used for candle holders, were placed between sprays of wax lilies of the valley on the table.

After the reception the bride and groom left for a honeymoon at an undisclosed destination. They will live in San Jose where the groom is associated with an automobile sales agency and the bride is art consultant for an art supplies firm. She is a graduate of the University of California at Los Angeles and her husband of San Jose State College.

The bride's older sister, Elenore, and her husband, Byron C. Clayton, with their daughter, Mrs. Jeannette Girod, came to Carmel for the wedding.

Lions Club Birthday Party

On Saturday evening Carmel Lions Club members and their ladies had dinner and danced at the Mark Thomas Inn in celebration of the seventeenth anniversary of the founding of the club. Special guests were Lions District Governor Ray Marks and Mrs. Marks from San Francisco and Lions Deputy District Governor James Pettit and Mrs. Pettit. Romie Garneau, was in charge of arrangements for the annual Ladies Night party and birthday dinner dance celebration.

John Christopher Third Child

Lieutenant Commander and Mrs. Marvin D. Marsh have a new son, John Christopher, born at the Peninsula Community Hospital on December 11. He has a sister, Roxanne, ten years old, and a brother, Billy, nine. His birth weight was seven pounds, four ounces.

Mrs. Elizabeth Bransby of Baltimore, Maryland, and Mrs. Ada Marsh of Dallas, Texas, are his grandmothers.

Lieutenant Commander Marsh brought his family here six months ago when he began communication engineering studies at the Naval Postgraduate School. They will remain here for another year and a half.

Keven Paul Morlang Second Son

Mr. and Mrs. William Paul Morlang are parents of a second son, Keven Paul, born at the Peninsula Community Hospital on December 5 with a birth weight of eight pounds, six ounces. His brother, David, is five years old.

David's mother taught girls' physical education and his father driver training classes at Carmel High School until last June. Mr. Morlang now is instructing driver education students in three schools in the Los Angeles school system. He will arrive home on Friday to see his new son for the first time. Last week end he had intended to come to Carmel but found he must attend a compulsory Teachers' Institute in the south.

Keven's grandparents are George Morlang of Sherman Oaks and Mr. and Mrs. Max Wunderlich of Westwood in Northern California. Mrs. Wunderlich returned to her home on Monday after a week's stay here with her daughter and grandson.

Carmel Men Pass Bar Exam

Ronald Joseph Motta and Francis P. (Skipper) Lloyd were successful candidates in the California bar examination given in September, the State Bar of California announced on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Motta are the parents of Ronald who graduated from Santa Clara University School of Law in June. He has been working in the law office of Charles P. McHarry since taking the bar exam and plans to attend the University of California at Los Angeles law school next year for special training in tax laws. Following this he will practice on the Peninsula.

Skipper Lloyd, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lloyd, will be on active duty as an Army second lieutenant at Fort Gordon, Georgia, for the next six months. He, too, plans to practice as an attorney in this area.

SCHEVILL TO DISCUSS BRECHT AND O'NEILL

Poet and dramatist James Schevill will discuss Problems for the Playwright, tomorrow evening at 8:00 o'clock at the Carmel Art Gallery. Presented by University Extension, the program is part of a series on Contemporary Man and His Arts.

In his presentation, Schevill will compare the works of Bertolt Brecht and Eugene O'Neill.

Sports...

varsity cagers opened the season with a 46-36 win over the Palma reserves as Bobby Little poured through 19 points to lead the scoring parade. The little junior forward hit for 9 field goals and 1 free throw and played an excellent floor game as a feeder and rebounder. Scott Forbes tanked 9 points, Jim Brown 7, Mike Dunham 4, Frank Mayo 2, and Paul Rice 1.

MPC HOSTS HOOP TOURNNEY AT FORT ORD

The spacious Fort Ord Sports Arena will be the site of the Coast JC Basketball Tournament which is slated to get underway this afternoon at 3:00 o'clock. Monterey Peninsula College is hosting the junior college hoop festival this year and is also favored to finish on top of the heap. Sternest competition is expected to come from the San Jose Jaguars who were the 1958 champions. Semi-final action is scheduled for Friday afternoon and evening, with the finals being played at 9:30 Saturday.

Today's draw matches San Jose and Foothill in the 3:00 o'clock tilt; Diablo and Hartnell clash at 4:30; Vallejo takes on Menlo at 7:00 o'clock; and the Lobos entertain Cabrillo in the 8:30 windup.

PLANNERS MEET FRIDAY

Monterey Peninsula Area Planning Commission will hold its regular meeting Friday night, 8:00 o'clock, in the Seaside City Council Chambers.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SERMON
"If the Universe, Including Man, Evolved by Atomic Force?" will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon at Christian Science services Sunday.

Matthew's account of Christ Jesus' stilling of the tempest (8:23-26) will be included in the Scriptural readings.

From "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will be read the following (134:26): "Jesus said: 'I knew that Thou hearest me always; and he raised Lazarus from the dead, stilled the tempest, healed the sick, walked on the water. There is divine authority for believing in the superiority of spiritual power over material resistance.'"

The Golden Text is from Isaiah (45:5, 12): "I am the Lord, and there is none else, there is no God beside me: I have made the earth, and created man upon it: I, even my hands, have stretched out the heavens, and all their host have I commanded."

ALADDIN IN CARMEL

Re-printed below is a newspaper clipping, written by a roving reporter, who was greatly taken by the wondrous things displayed in Mr. Winter's shop, The Village Jeweler, on Dolores Street.

"Aladdin, lost in his cave and putting out his hand to the trees which bore the fruits of glorious color and fashioned of precious stones, was no more astounded than is the Carmel visitor who just happens into the 'ear-ring' shop. It can't be, one thinks, on being told that there is a place whose sole stock in trade is ear-rings. It is altogether unlikely that a merchant would say, 'This one thing I do', and then stick to ear-rings, of all things.

"And it isn't quite that way, really, because there are a few—a very few—other bits of jewelry to be found in this little cave. But these are far outshone by the main item, a piece de resistance which whets but never satisfies the appetite.

"Recently a New York salesman unloaded his sample cases before the doorway of this small establishment. He came as missionary to unknown parts, for isn't Carmel, California, a tiny hinterland village which tries hard but doesn't quite know how? On stepping inside, he fell back, dismayed. 'Oh, no!' was his shout of disbelief. There was no need for missionary work here—not in his department, anyhow.

"The Village Jeweler, whose astute owners have collected all this loot and put it under one roof, literally has the largest and most surprising display of ear-rings in the United States. No foolin'. And it takes a mighty stout-hearted woman to pass up the feast.

"Did your grandmother own some beautifully wrought bracelets of soft gold, with classic designs running through the pattern? And, having had these appraised, have you taken them down to the bank for safe keeping? You can match them here in ear-rings, and at a painless price. Persons knowing the value of Grandma's keep-sakes will be properly impressed at the ear-rings you have chosen to go with them, and you can save the price of an extra safety deposit box.

"Every color of the spectrum, softly muted, is here, in ascending or descending scale, as to hues and shades and tints. If it's azure or lapis Lazuli or rose or emerald or amethyst or topaz or gold or silver you prefer, you mention it. At once you find yourself in the predicament of the fellow who likes pie and is let loose in the cafeteria where the chef has out-done himself this day with apple and peach and cherry and lemon and chocolate and gooseberry and blueberry and raisin and custard and currant and squash and mince. He can't eat them all but he's happier than larks in the pop-corn.

"There are whole trays of each color, quite by itself. And these range in style from what you would wear to your Grand-Aunt Emma's tea for the ladies' knitting group to something dazzling for a night on the town in company with six drunken sailors. You accept a lapful of jewels from the trusting soul who is the proprietor and have yourself a big time. All HE has to do is hope your check won't bounce.

"There is something barbaric in almost every female. She 'hates' jewelry, maybe, but when she says 'jewelry' she almost never means little things to stick in her ears. Count the number of women you see who are not wearing brooches, bracelets, rings, necklaces or tiaras but who are wearing ear-rings. That's because The Little Woman feels kind of undressed without them. The Village Jeweler is for the likes of her. And it's worth the trip—from ANY distance. A Christmas shoppers' paradise."—Adv.

visit London would be advised to pack the sun in his valise as there is definitely a demand for this commodity.

"Social note: The Persian Ambassador came to Embassy tea here in our landlord's wing of the house and he arrived in a huge black fin-tailed Cadillac. They may sneer at our American way of life but we notice the people getting more and more American products each month. When the Queen appears in blue jeans we'll know we've won at least a bad-taste victory of sorts.

Judge Gordon Campbell, in his letter of resignation from the board of education, suggested that the trustees consider holding high school examinations before Christmas and Easter so the students could enjoy carefree holidays. This arrangement implies the quarter system, such as is employed at Stanford, with a summer quarter for those who wish to enroll. A student in a hurry could graduate in three years.

No California high school operates on the quarter system but "Carmel is different," one trustee observed at the board meeting Monday night.

Dudley Swim, in the audience, spoke in favor of the year around school plan.

Chairman Ted Fehring said such a radical change required more study, and the board turned the proposal over to the curriculum committee.

Supervisors Put Part Of Coast Land Under Interim Zoning Ord.

the objections to the one-acre proposal, he asked if the property owners would consider a minimum of 2½ acres "to make it obvious that the zoning is only temporary."

State Senator Fred Farr, representing Big Sur property owners Nicholas Roosevelt and Nathaniel Owings, took exception to the six-month stipulation. "I do not think you should bind yourselves one way or another," he told the board. "When the master plan is submitted, then is the time to determine precise zoning." The 2½ acre zoning for six months would help, he said, but added that "if a sincere master plan is under way and not ready in six months, the zoning should hold until the time is proper to change it, and not revoked when you have nothing substantial to put in its place."

Farr's statement elicited a flurry of applause from the audience, quickly shushed by Supervisor Hudson.

Farr's stand was supported by Mrs. Russell Williams, representing the Rio Piedras Corporation—a non-profit organization of owners of 880 acres between Bixby Creek and Rocky Creek—and by Will Shaw, speaking for the Carmel Highlands Association.

The Highlands statement also noted that recommendation for minimum one-acre zoning along the coast was included in a report submitted over two years ago by a special advisory committee appointed by the planning commission.

Senator Farr in his remarks to the supervisors stressed that planning for the coast should proceed on all levels of county, state and federal government; funds obtained by the county might be augmented by private contributions and even by help from Sacramento. The real problem of the coast, he said, is population density; piecemeal planning for the coast could create a volume of traffic eventually resulting in the coast road being a freeway, not a scenic highway. Citing the many articles concerning the coast highway which have appeared recently in various national magazines, Farr said "Highway 1 is important not only to the landowners and the county, but to the nation as a whole."

A Christmas Message from Abel Cable

On a night more than nineteen and a half centuries ago, while shepherds watched their flocks and wise men came bearing gifts, a Babe was born in a manger.

That event, destined to enrich the lives of men through all the years since the first Christmas Eve, took place in a "little town."

In recent times, hundreds of "little towns" and cities all over America have been enriched by the modern electronic miracle of COMMUNITY TELEVISION. In our own community, vivid and dependable TV is ever available from the community antenna, to entertain and inform you in your leisure hours, and to keep your family circle intact. The holiday season will be a happier one for those who watch "cable TV," and your cable connection is a gift that keeps on giving.

Able Cable at your beck and call, wishes you a very Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.
